2. Terms and Conditions that apply to the Services

2.1. Hantec Markets Limited

Hantec Markets Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority of 25 The North Colonnade, Canary Wharf, London E14 5HS. We are entered on the FCA Register and our firm reference number is 502635. Our authorisation includes the provision of arranging deals in investments and non-advised dealing services and such services comprise our main business activities.

Our principal place of business is Hantec House, 12-14 Wilfred Street, London SW1E 6PL (we will notify you of any change to our principal place of business) our telephone number is 020 7036 0888 and our email address is accounts@hantecfx.com

2.2. Non-advised dealing services

2.2.1.

Unless we have agreed to provide you with investment advice and given you a personal recommendation in relation to a particular transaction, we offer "non-advised dealing services" which means us buying from you or selling investments to you or buying or selling investments on your behalf when you do not wish us to advise you on the merits or the suitability of the transaction for you.

2.2.2.

Any instructions you give us in relation to non-advised dealing services must be given by you through our online foreign exchange, bullion, CFD and derivatives transaction systems (the "Online Platform") unless we agree otherwise.

2.2.3.

We will provide you with prices at which the relevant currency, bullion, CFD or derivative can be purchased or sold either verbally or via the Online Platform.

2.2.4.

You are required to settle each transaction on the date agreed with us for the settlement or if there is no such date, then the second business day after the execution of an order by us or on such other date as we may determine (the "Value Date").

2.3. Appropriateness

2.3.1.

Even if we are not providing you with investment advice, for certain types of investment (considered by the FCA to be complex investments) when we receive instructions to deal on a non-advised basis we are required under the FCA rules to assess the appropriateness of such instructions by reference to your knowledge, experience and understanding of the risks involved. Should we not have sufficient information to make this assessment we reserve the right not to act on instructions received from you.

2.3.2.

If we consider that (with regard to the information we hold about you) a transaction is inappropriate, we shall warn you of this. If you wish to proceed with the transaction after having been given this warning, you shall be solely responsible for that decision.

2.4. Confirmations

2.4.1.

When we deal for you on a non-advised basis we will provide you with a notice in electronic form confirming the execution of your order and providing you with details of the transaction (such as the price and any rate of exchange used for a currency conversion). You should check the confirmation carefully and let us know immediately of any errors. Unless you let us know within 24 hours that there is an error in the confirmation we send you it will be deemed to be binding on you (in the absence of manifest error).

2.5. Best execution

2.5.1.

When we execute an order on your behalf the FCA rules require us to take all reasonable steps to obtain the best possible result for you taking into account a number of relevant factors. In order to comply with our obligations in relation to best execution we have in place an order execution policy which is available on our website. Our order execution policy is reviewed periodically and also whenever a material change occurs that affects our ability to continue to provide best execution. By entering into this Agreement you confirm that you agree to this policy.

2.5.2.

Please note that specific instructions from you in relation to the execution of orders may prevent us from following our order execution policy in respect of the elements of execution covered by the specific instruction.

2.5.3.

When we enter into transactions on your behalf denominated in a foreign currency other than the base currency of your account (as such base currency is provided for in the Account Opening Application Form) we may carry out any necessary foreign exchange transactions (together with any hedging transactions on a transaction by transaction basis) on the settlement date for the transaction rather than the trade date at our then prevailing rates of exchange.

2.5.4.

Payments into your account may where necessary be converted into the base currency of your account.

2.6. Capacity

2.6.1.

Unless we agree otherwise at the time of dealing, we will be the counterparty to all your transactions and act as a principal and not as agent on your behalf. Unless we agree otherwise, we will treat you alone as our client for all purposes and you shall be directly and fully responsible for performing the obligations under each transaction we enter in with you or on your behalf. We do not have nor do we seek to have any relationship with any third party on whose behalf it may be claimed you are acting.

2.7. Aggregation

2.7.1.

Subject to the FCA rules, we may aggregate transactions in respect of your account with those of other clients and of our employees and associates (including any holding company or subsidiary company (as defined in the Companies Act 2006) from time to time, of ours and/or any subsidiary company of any such holding company, an "Associated Company") and their employees without asking you first. We will only aggregate your order if we believe it is likely that the aggregation of your order will work overall to your advantage. However, you should note that the effect of aggregation may work to your disadvantage in relation to a particular order.

2.8. Use of our Online Platform

2.8.1.

You will be able to enter orders at the exchange rates and prices displayed on the Online Platform.

2.8.2.

The ownership of materials and text contained on our website, accessed from it, or otherwise distributed to you by us, is confidential and protected by copyright. You agree that this material and text is for your own personal use and that you will not disclose it to anyone else. All electronic communications between parties in the course of business may be monitored by us in accordance with relevant law.

2.8.3.

We will notify you of your Online Platform account password by phone, letter or email. Your personal information will be requested as a means to verify your identity before the password is released over the telephone. Your password is strictly confidential and you agree to take full responsibility for all transactions, loss, costs and expenses, should any transaction be accepted and concluded by us after the password has been provided to you.

2.8.4.

You agree that by using the Online Platform you have given your prior express consent to receive and transmit instructions for execution outside a regulated market or multilateral trading facility.

2.8.5.

You will provide us with a list of people authorised to access the Online Platform on your behalf (each an "Authorised User"). You shall notify us immediately when any new person becomes an Authorised User or when any existing Authorised User is no longer entitled to be an Authorised User. Upon receipt of such notice, the change in Authorised User is effective immediately (or on such date as specified in the notice). However such notice shall not affect any instructions already executed prior to receipt of such notice. All instructions given and accepted by an Authorised User will be deemed to be instructions authorised by you and shall be binding on you.

2.8.6.

You must ensure that each Authorised User quits and closes the internet browser after using the Online Platform.

2.8.7.

You will advise us immediately if you have any reason to believe that your login and password have not been kept secure and confidential or may otherwise have become known to others.

2.8.8.

We may at any time without notice to you suspend, withdraw or deny access to the Online Platform for any reason including but not limited to security, quality of service, failure by you to pay an amount when due or breach by you of any provision of this Agreement.

2.9. Transmission of orders

2.9.1.

Unless otherwise agreed by us, all orders to trade must be given to us through the Online Platform. Such order shall not take effect unless actually received by us.

2.9.2.

We will endeavour to advise you promptly if such circumstances arise, however we are under no obligation to provide you with our reasons for not acting on your orders. We will not be liable to you in any way if we refuse to follow your orders.

2.10. Orders binding

2.10.1.

When you click the submit button to enter an order through our Online Platform (or give us an order by any other means we may agree) we will be under no obligation to accept it or, if accepted, under no obligation to execute it. Unexecuted orders may be cancelled at our discretion. Once an order has been entered into our Online Platform it may not be altered or cancelled.

2.11. Margin Deposit

2.11.1.

Before executing any order, we may in our absolute discretion require a deposit of such amount as we may specify in respect of any actual, anticipated or contingent liability you may have to us in respect of anticipated or existing open positions which you have or will have with us (the "Margin Deposit").

2.11.2.

We reserve the right to change the margin requirements at any time and any change may become effective immediately. We may inform you of this by email, via the electronic trading platform, telephone call, fax, post, text message, or by posting notice of the change on our website. It is your responsibility to know at all times the current margin requirement applicable to your account and your open positions.

2.12. Cleared funds

2.12.1.

You must at all times have sufficient cleared funds with us before we will execute any order. We will indicate to you the sum required as the Margin Deposit for each order.

2.12.2.

We will only accept funds from you where:

- they are from an account held in your name, either jointly or individually, the payment has originated from you and we reserve the right to verify the bank account if the payment is made by bank transfer.
- they are made on your behalf by an introducing broker; we have an agreement in place with that introducing broker; and we have taken all necessary check to verify the account the payment is made from.

2.12.3.

If your Account has a negative cash value for any reason, including but not limited to, the closure of your positions under term 2.15, or termination of this agreement, that negative cash value represents a debt owed to us which is due and payable immediately.

2.13. Profits, Losses and Interest Charges on Open Positions

2.13.1.

For any open position held by you, we shall from time to time credit your account with profits and interest earned, or debit your account for losses and interest incurred from the date agreed with us until the Value Date (as defined in Term 2 above) or until the position is closed or liquidated, in the following manner:

- for buying of one currency against the sale of another currency and the currency bought has a higher interest rate than the currency sold, interest arising therefrom shall be credited to your account;
- for bullion contracts, interest arising from buying or selling bullion shall be credited or debited to your account;
- in the case of a negative interest rate, interest arising therefrom shall be debited to your account;
- in the case of CFDs, we will charge an interest rate in respect of each [long (or bought)] open position and:
 - in the case of long (or bought) positions we will settle the difference between the price or level at which we entered into the transaction with you and the price or level of the subject matter (or underlying) on the Value Date, if it is higher we will pay the difference to you but if it is lower you will pay the difference to us;
 - in the case of short (or sold) positions we will settle the difference between the price or level at which we entered into the transaction with you and the price or level of the subject matter (or underlying) on the Value Date, if it is lower we will pay the difference to you but if it is higher you will pay the difference to us.

2.13.2.

In all cases, interest shall be at the rate we determine from time to time and published on our website.

2.14. Advances and Interest Rate

2.14.1.

If you are not able or not willing to settle any transaction on the Value Date or on such date as we shall require settlement, we may (but without obligation to do so) make an advance to you of such amount as is necessary for direct settlement of any transaction in whole or in part and you undertake to repay the US dollar equivalent (at the exchange rate or rates as we shall stipulate) upon demand with interest therein at the rate of 3% per annum above the prime lending rate in the United States for the time being in force, calculated on a daily basis from the date of such advance up to and including the date of repayment in full. Interest at the above rate shall be chargeable on the following items:

- Any part of the Margin Deposit or additional Margin Deposit not paid or deposited in the form of cash; and
- Any amount due to us which remains outstanding.

2.14.2.

This Term (2.14) shall not be construed as binding us to make any advance to you nor shall it prejudice any of the rights and remedies we have against you or any other persons under this Agreement or otherwise conferred by law.

2.15. Forced Liquidation

2.15.1.

You are required to maintain a sufficient level of Margin Deposit. We reserve our right to close out all open positions:

- if at any time the Margin Deposit held by us is approaching or is no longer sufficient to cover the negative mark to market value of any or all open positions that you have with us; or
- if at any time the pre-agreed credit limit assigned to you is no longer sufficient to cover the negative mark to market value of any or all open positions that you have open with us.

2.15.2.

We shall have the right, in our absolute discretion, to determine the mark to market value from time to time. In addition to other remedies available to us, if you fail to pay an amount when due under this Agreement, we have the right to close (by either buying or selling) any or all of your open positions.

2.15.3.

We are not obliged to contact you before we take the relevant action under clause 2.15.1. If however we do so, the margin call may be made by email, via the electronic trading platform, telephone call, fax, post or text message. The margin call will be deemed to have been received if we have left a message requesting you to contact us, or if we have been unable to leave a message but made reasonable endeavours to do so.

2.16. Quoting error

2.16.1.

We will use all reasonable endeavours to provide up-to-date quotes for all currencies, bullion and other instruments traded on or through our Online Platform however we give no assurance that the prices quoted are accurate

2.16.2.

In accordance with Term 29.1 in this Section 2, should a quoting error occur due to a typographical error or other obvious mistake in a quote or indication (the "Quoting Error"), we are not liable for any damages, claims, losses, liabilities or costs arising from the Quoting Error. We reserve the right to make the necessary adjustments to correct the Quoting Error and close any position opened on the basis of a Quoting Error. Any dispute arising from a Quoting Error will be resolved on the basis of the fair market value, as determined by us acting reasonably, of the relevant currency at the time such Quoting Error occurred.

2.17. Credit Limits

2.17.1.

We may, but have no obligation to, grant you a credit limit in an agreed currency that can be offset against a negative mark to market value on an open position, or an amount applicable to unsettled trading losses to some or all trades (either individually or in aggregate or both).

2.17.2.

If the negative mark to market of an open position is approaching or has exceeded your credit limit, we reserve the right to require you to pay an amount in addition to the Margin Deposit in our absolute discretion. Any credit limit we set may be reduced or withdrawn at any time by giving you notice in writing.

2.17.3.

If we act on an instruction which would result in a credit limit being exceeded:

- we are not obliged to advise you of this;
- you will be liable to us for all amounts due to us including those above any credit limit;
- we are not obliged to act upon any subsequent instruction where a credit limit may be exceeded.

2.18. Authorisation Limits

2.18.1.

You may notify us of an authorisation limit applicable to some or all trades either in general or for particular Authorised Users. You may withdraw any such authorisation limit at any time by giving us notice in writing. We may, in our absolute discretion, impose an authorisation limit on you and/or any Authorised Users or vary any such limit at any time by giving you notice in writing in accordance with Term 27 of this Section 2.

2.19. Material interests and conflicts

2.19.1.

Under the FCA rules we are required to have in place arrangements with a view to taking all reasonable steps to prevent such conflicts of interest constituting or giving rise to a material risk of damage to the interests of our clients. We have established a comprehensive conflicts of interest policy to identify and manage such actual or potential conflicts of interest. Where we do not consider that the arrangements under our conflicts of interest policy are sufficient to manage a particular conflict, we will inform you of the nature and/or source of the conflict. Our full conflicts of interest policy is available on request.

2.20. Client money

2.20.1.

All amounts held in your account will be received and held by us as client money and segregated ("Segregated Funds") by us in accordance with the FCA rules. Unless you have notified us in writing to the contrary, we may hold

The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such person may be different from that of the UK and in the event of the insolvency or any equivalent failure of that person, your money may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held in a segregated account in the UK.

2.20.2.

You agree that in the event that there has been no movement on your account for a period of at least six years (notwithstanding any payments or receipts of charges, interest or similar items) and/or we are unable to trace you despite having taken reasonable steps to do so, we may release your money from the segregated account and use it as our own.

2.21. Confidentiality

2.21.1.

We will use reasonable endeavours to ensure that all confidential information relating to you and your account is kept confidential. However, you authorise us to disclose information (confidential or not):

2.22.6.

We have security procedures covering the storage and disclosure of your personal information to prevent unauthorised access and to comply with our legal obligations.

2.22.7.

You may be entitled to ask us for details of the personal information that we hold about you, the purposes for which it is being or will be processed and the recipients or classes of recipients to whom it is being or will be disclosed. If you would like to request copies of this information, please contact us. We may charge a fee for providing this information to you (details of which are available upon request). 2.28.6.

This indemnity shall not apply to the extent of any liability caused by a breach of this Agreement by us or the negligence, fraud or wilful default of us, our agents, a nominee or custodian.

2.29. The extent of our responsibility for our actions and the actions of others

2.29.1. Our responsibility

We will carry out our duties with reasonable skill, care and diligence and in accordance with the instructions and authority you have given us. As long as we do this, we cannot and do not accept any liability for loss (or the loss of an opportunity to gain) which arises from the provision of our Services for and on your behalf. We shall not be liable under any circumstances for any direct, indirect or consequential loss incurred as a result of a delay in funds reaching you.

2.29.2. We accept responsibility for our own nominee(s)

We accept responsibility for the acts or omissions in respect of this Agreement of any nominee company controlled by us or controlled by one of our Associated Companies.

2.29.3. Custodians / agents (other than our own nominee(s))

We will exercise reasonable care in our choice of nominees, custodians or agents and we will monitor their continuing suitability. As long as we do this (and as long as the losses do not arise directly from our negligence, fraud or wilful default) we cannot and do not accept responsibility for loss arising from the default of a nominee (other than our own nominee), a custodian or agent whether the loss arises from the loss of funds, investments, title documents or otherwise.

2.29.4. Events outside our reasonable control

We cannot and do not accept responsibility for losses you suffer as a result of our (or our agents, nominees, custodians or others appointed by us) failing to comply with these terms (or terms or matters contained in the Account Opening Application Form) as a result of circumstances outside our or their reasonable control. These circumstances would include, but not be limited to, interruption of power supply, electronic equipment or supplier failure. Neither objectives nor restrictions will be deemed to be breached as a result of changes in the value of investments caused by movements in the market.

2.29.5. Market Disturbances

We may give a notice (a "Disturbance Notice") to you at any time if we form the view that market or trading conditions in the relevant market for the currency, bullion or other instrument concerned are seriously disturbed. This includes circumstances where, in our opinion, deposits in the currency, bullion or the instrument concerned are not available to us in the ordinary course of business in the relevant market or because of national or international financial, political or economic circumstances or exchange controls, it is impractical. When a Disturbance Notice is given, our obligations will be suspended while we negotiate alternative arrangements with you. If we reach agreement before the Value Date, those alternative arrangements will apply. If we do not reach agreement within that period, we will each be released from our obligations under the relevant transaction.

2.29.6. Preservation of rights under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and the regulatory system

Nothing in this Agreement is intended to have, or has, the effect of excluding or restricting our duties or liabilities to you under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or the regulatory system.

2.29.7. Agency status

In any circumstances in which we act as your agent you will be bound by our actions. These circumstances may include but not be limited to our dealing with a third party on your behalf or arranging for a third party to receive or hold your money. Nevertheless, none of the Services shall give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties which would prevent or hinder us or any Associated Company in transactions with or for you, including programme trades, acting as both market maker and broker, or acting as agent in dealing with other associates or clients and obtaining a profit from any such activity.

2.30. Delegation and use of Associated Companies/agents

- the basis of calculation of our charges;
- how frequently they are to be paid;
- (where relevant) whether any other payment is to be received by us (or to our knowledge by an Associated Company) in connection with transactions we carry out with or for you in addition to, or in lieu of, our charges.

2.31.2. Expenses

You agree to reimburse us for all the costs and expenses we incur in the carrying out of our Services. The costs will include, but not be limited to:

- any costs and expenses referred to in the Account Opening Application Form and/or otherwise notified to you;
- transaction costs;
- commissions, transfer fees, registration fees, taxes and similar liabilities and costs.

We shall retain a lien and security interest over any assets within your account to the extent that any charges, costs, losses or claims for which you are liable to us remain unpaid. We will notify you of any disposal of any assets of yours we may be holding pursuant to rights under a lien or security interest. Such disposal will occur if you fail to make payments to us when due. The lien or security interest will apply in respect of each asset or type of asset or class of asset comprised within your account from time to time to the extent of your indebtedness to us.

In the event of default or late payment of any sum due to us we reserve the right to charge interest at a rate not exceeding the effective cost to us of borrowing in the relevant money markets an amount equal to the sums due or such other rate as we may have notified to you.

You authorise us to deduct the charges and expenses due in relation to the provision of our Services under this Agreement and all related charges and expenses from your account at the times and frequency which have been notified to you. If there are insufficient cash balances on the account you authorise us to liquidate positions or sell any assets we may be holding to the extent necessary to cover the accrued charges and expenses. If we cannot collect charges and expenses in this way we will invoice you and the invoice will be payable on receipt.

2.31.5. Dormant Account Fees

If there has been no activity for more than six months on any account in your name it will be classified as dormant and may be charged the dormant account fee. The fee will be charged every six months after this time if there continues to be no activity on the account(s). To avoid being charged a dormant account fee, you should have executed at least one trade in your account(s) in any given 6 month period. If you have unrealised trades that have remained open for longer than the 6 month period but have not executed any further trades, your account will not be deemed dormant. If your account balance is zero or the dormant account fee will bring the balance of your account to zero or negative, Hantec Markets will charge such part of the fee that brings the account balance to zero and then close that account as per clause 2.32.1.2. We reserve the right to change this fee at immediate notice and may inform you of this by email, via the electronic trading platform, telephone call, fax, post, text message, or by posting notice of the change on our website

The rights and remedies provided in this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

Neither the failure nor delay on our part in exercising any right or remedy under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy preclude us from any other or further waiver of any right or remedy.

2.33.5. Severance

If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

4. Risk Warnings

You should consider the following risks before trading through our Services.

Trading in foreign exchange, bullion, CFDs and derivatives, particularly margin trading, involves the potential for profit as well as the risk of loss which may vastly exceed the amount of money you commit to any trade or transaction.

You may be required to deposit substantial additional margin, at short notice, to hold your positions. If you fail to provide funds to hold your positions they may be closed without further reference to you.

We cannot guarantee a maximum loss that you may suffer.

Movement in the price of foreign exchange, bullion rates, CFDs and derivatives are influenced by a variety of factors of global origin many of which are unpredictable. Price movements of derivative contracts are influenced by interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments intervene from time to time, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly markets in currencies and interest rate related contracts and derivatives. Such intervention is often intended to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

Violent movements in the price of foreign exchange, bullion rates, CFDs and derivatives may result in action by the market as a result of which you may be unable to settle adverse trades.

Certain investment strategies or hedging techniques, including those involving 'spread' positions or 'straddles', may be as risky as taking simple 'long' or 'short' positions.

Although derivatives can be used for the management of investment risk, some of these products are unsuitable for many investors. Different instruments involve different levels of exposure to risk and in deciding whether to trade in such instruments you should be aware of the issues set out in this risk warning. However, this risk warning cannot disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of such derivatives. You should not deal in derivatives unless you understand their nature and the full extent of your exposure to risk and losses.

You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

If there is anything you do not understand it is recommended that you seek appropriate advice from a suitably qualified person (such as a lawyer, accountant or financial adviser).
